

Certificate of Attendance

This is to certify that

MARIA VERSHININA

has successfully completed the Teaching English for Academic Purposes 1 course

The University of Warwick
March 2022

Neil Murray

Professor Neil Murray
Director of English Language and
Short Courses

THE UNIVERSITY OF WARWICK

The Centre for Applied Linguistics

Warwick TEAP 1 Course content

Directed study, seminars and tutorials: 55 hours

Expected estimated background reading prior to classes, planning for micro-teaching and written assignments: 45 hours

(Per week: 2 hours 30 minutes seminars and tutorials, c3 hours guided self-study)

TEAP Outline syllabus

- History of EAP and influences on EAP.
- Differences between General English teaching and EAP teaching.
- Text analysis skills and the value of text analysis for teachers and students.
- Academic cultures, graduate attributes, and academic integrity.
- Teaching academic reading skills.
- Examining academic language in spoken and written texts. Teaching academic language.
- Critical thinking in the context of university education and developing critical reading and writing skills.
- Teaching academic writing skills.
- Teaching academic listening and speaking skills.
- Reflecting on prior teaching experience with reference to the course content.
- Planning a 1-hour innovative EAP lesson and teaching 30 minutes to peers.
- Evaluating EAP micro-teaching lessons.
- Writing a 1000-1100 assignment to include a rationale for the micro-teaching lesson.

THE UNIVERSITY OF
WARWICK

The Centre for
Applied Linguistics

